Ingredients

- 1 lb ground turkey (or ground beef)
- 2 tablespoons homemade taco seasoning (or one package storebought)
- 1 cup black beans (from a can; drained & rinsed)
- 1 cup corn kernels (from a can; drained & rinsed)
- 1 cup tomatoes (chopped)
- 1 cup shredded cheese
- 4 handfuls romaine lettuce (or iceberg; washed, dried & cut into bite-sized pieces)
- 1 cup tortilla strips

Optional

- 1 avocado (peeled & chopped; optional)
- sour cream
- salsa
- guacamole

Instructions

1. Cook turkey over medium heat in a non-stick pan, breaking it up with a spatula. Cook for 7 or so minutes, until no pink remains.
2. Drain the pan from grease or liquid if necessary.
3. Add 2/3 cup of water to the pan with the taco seasoning. Cook, stirring frequently until sauce is bubbly and thickened and meat is evenly coated.

4. Remove pan from heat and set aside to cool slightly.
5. Combine all ingredients and divide between four bowls.
6. Enjoy!

Notes

For meal prep

Store in a quart-sized meal prep container and layer in the following order:

- condiments at the bottom
- taco meat
- black beans
- corn
- tomatoes
- romaine lettuce at the top

*omit the avocado and tortilla chips or add just prior to serving.
