

delish

Steak Fajita Power Bowls

by LENA ABRAHAM

JAN 5, 2018

YIELDS: 4

PREP TIME: 0HOURS 30MINS

TOTAL TIME: 0HOURS 45MINS

INGREDIENTS

2 tbsp. vegetable oil, divided

1/2 yellow onion, sliced into half moons

2 bell peppers, thinly sliced

kosher salt

Freshly ground black pepper

1 lb. skirt steak, cut into 1/2" slices

Juice of 1/2 lime

1/2 tsp. cumin

1/2 tsp. chili powder

4 c. cooked brown rice

1 c. black beans, drained and rinsed
1 c. frozen corn, warmed
1 avocado, thinly sliced
1 tbsp. finely chopped cilantro, for garnish
Sour cream, for serving

DIRECTIONS

- 1 In a large skillet over medium heat, heat 1 tbsp vegetable oil. Add the onions and peppers, and season with salt and pepper to taste. Cook until onions are translucent and peppers are tender, 7 to 10 minutes. Remove from skillet and reserve.
- 2 Add remaining vegetable oil and let heat for about 30 seconds, then add skirt steak to pan. Squeeze lime over steak and season with cumin, chili powder, salt and pepper. Let them sit for a minute or so to get a nice sear, then cook to your preference, about another 5 minutes for medium well done steak. Remove from skillet.
- 3 Build bowls: start with about 1 cup rice per bowl. Top with steak, onions and peppers, avocado, black beans and corn.
- 4 Garnish with cilantro and drizzle with sour cream. Serve.

LENA ABRAHAM Food Editor

Lena Abraham is the Food Editor at Delish, where she develops and styles recipes for video and photo, and also stays on top of current food trends.

©2020 Hearst Magazine Media, Inc. All Rights Reserved.